A Liturgy for Feasting with Friends

Leader: To gather joyfully is indeed a serious affair, for feasting and all enjoyments gratefully taken are, at their heart, acts of war.

People: In celebrating this feast we declare that evil and death, suffering and loss, sorrow and tears, will not have the final word. But the joy of fellowship, and the welcome and comfort of friends new and old, and the celebration of these blessings of food and drink and conversation and laughter are the true evidences of things eternal, and are the first fruits of that great glad joy that is to come and that will be unending.

So let our feast this day be joined to those sure victories secured by Christ. Let it be to us now a delight, and a glad foretaste of his eternal kingdom. Bless us, O Lord, in this feast.

Bless us, O Lord, as we linger over our cups, And over tables laden with good things, as we relish the delights of varied texture and flavor, Of aromas and savory spices, Of dishes prepared as acts of love and blessing, Of sweet delights made sweeter by the communion of saints.

May this shared meal, and our pleasure in it, bear witness against the artifice and deceptions of the prince of the darkness that would blind this world to hope. May it strike at the root of the lie that would drain life of meaning, and the world of joy, and suffering of redemption. May this our feast fall like a great hammer blow against that brittle night, Shattering the gloom, reawakening our hearts, stirring our imaginations, focusing our vision On the kingdom of heaven that is to come On the kingdom that is promised On the kingdom that is already, indeed, among us, For the resurrection of all good things has already joyfully begun.

May this feast be an echo of that great supper of the Lamb, and a foreshadowing of the great celebration that awaits the children of God.

Where two or more of us are gathered, O Lord, there you have promised to be And here we are And so, here are you. Take joy, O King, in this our feast. Take joy, O King!

Leader: All will be well!

People: All will be well! Nothing good and right and true will be lost forever. All good things will be restored. Feast and be reminded! Take joy, little flock. Take joy! Let battle be joined! Let battle be joined!

Now you who are loved by the Father, prepare your hearts and give yourselves wholly to this celebration of joy, to the glad company of saints, to the comforting fellowship of the Spirit, and to the abiding presence of Christ who is seated among us both as our host and as our honored guest, and still yet as our conquering king. Amen.

In the name of the Father, the Son, and the Holy Spirit, take seat, take feast, take delight!

Chicken Posole Verde

Prep Time: | Cook Time: | Total Time: 1 hr 30 min

Ingredients

- Tomatillos, 12-15
- Poblano peppers, 3-4
- Ghost pepper, 1
- Serrano peppers, 2
- Yellow onion, 1
- Garlic, 6 cloves
- Whole Chicken, 1
- chicken stock, 1800 g
- hominy, 850 g
- Cumin, 3 g
- Ground coriander, 2 g
- Chili Powder, 2 g
- Salt,
- Black Pepper,
- Pickled onions,
- Jalapeños,
- Crema,
- Radishes, thinly sliced
- Cilantro,
- Cotija cheese,
- Limes,
- Pepitas,

Instructions

- Turn the oven on broil at 500° F/260° C.

- Spread tomatillos, poblano and serrano peppers on a large tin foil rimmed baking sheet. Broil for 5 minutes until blackened and charred. Let cool 10 minutes.
- Meanwhile, finely chop the yellow onion and garlic cloves. Add them to a bowl.
- Once cooled, finely chop the roasted tomatillos, poblanos, and serrano peppers and add them to the bowl.
- Cut the whole chicken into 10 pieces.
- If you haven't broken down a chicken yet, check out the video for how I do this.
- Next, heat a thin layer of vegetable oil in a large Dutch oven over medium-high heat.
- Liberally season the chicken pieces with salt and pepper.
- Add them to the Dutch oven to sear and brown on all sides. Set the browned chicken pieces on a plate and turn the heat to medium-low.
- To the same pot that the chicken was browned in, add the bowl of chopped vegetables, ground spices, and a pinch of salt to the pot. Sauté, stirring occasionally, for 10-15 minutes.
- Set the heat to low and sauté for another 15-20 minutes until everything is caramelized and reduced.
- Pour in the chicken stock and deglaze the pot.
- Add the browned chicken pieces. Bring the soup to a simmer and cook, uncovered, for 20-30 minutes.
- Remove the chicken pieces and shred them, picking out any bones or inedible pieces. Return the shredded chicken to the soup and add the hominy.
- Taste it and add salt and pepper as needed.
- Serve in bowls and top with pickled red onion, sliced jalapeño, crema, radish, cilantro, cotija, fresh squeezed lime, or any other desired toppings.

Thai Pizza

Prep Time: 2 hr | Cook Time: 35 min | Total Time: 2 hr 35 min

Ingredients

- 1 cup warm water (100-105 degrees)
- 2 1/4 teaspoons active dry yeast
- 2 tablespoons honey (divided)
- 2 tablespoon olive oil
- 3 cups all-purpose flour
- 1 1/2 teaspoons kosher salt
- 1/2- 1 cups sweet red chili sauce
- 1 cup mozzarella cheese (shredded, plus more for sprinkling)
- 1/2 cup peanut butter
- 5 tablespoons coconut milk
- 3 tablespoons soy sauce
- 1 tablespoon fish sauce
- 3 teaspoon sambal oelek
- 1 tablespoon honey
- 1 teaspoon chili oil
- 1 tablespoons ginger (freshly minced)
- 2 cloves garlic (minced)
- 1 small head cauliflower (chopped into bit size pieces)
- 2 red bell peppers (julienned)
- 4 green onions (sliced, for garnish)
- chopped peanuts (for garnish)

Instructions

1. For the Dough: In a large bowl, combine water, yeast and honey. Mix with a spoon, then let sit until foamy, about 10 minutes. Add in 2 1/2 cups flour and olive oil stirring with a spoon until the dough comes together but is still sticky. Using your hands, form the dough into a ball and work the additional 1/2 cup flour in to the dough, kneading it on a floured surface for a few minutes. You can also do all the mixing and kneading in your stand mixer with the dough hook attachment. Rub the same bowl with olive oil then place the dough inside, turning to coat. Cover with a towel and place in a warm place to rise for about 1 1/2 hours.
2. To make the Pizza's: Preheat the oven to 375 degrees.
3. Once the pizza dough is ready to go divided the dough in half. Place half the dough aside for another use or freeze for later. With the remaining dough roll/press into two medium size round pizzas (I like to divide my dough in half (again) and make two medium pizza's rather than one large. I find the the pizzas cook better at a smaller size.). They do not have to be perfect! Roll the dough as thin as possible or until you reach your desired thickness.
4. Spread the sweet asian chili sauce all over the pizza dough leaving about a half inch border for the crust. Add the mozzarella cheese.
5. In a large bowl, whisk together the peanut butter through the garlic. Toss the cauliflower in the peanut sauce. Using a fork remove the cauliflower and distribute evenly atop the pizzas. Reserve any remaining sauce for drizzling.
6. Scatter the red peppers on top and drizzle with any remaining peanut sauce. If desired sprinkle with a handful more of mozzarella cheese.
7. Bake at 375 degrees for 30- 35 minutes or until your desired doneness. Sprinkle with green onions and chopped peanuts.
8. Let sit for 5 mintes before cutting.

Bourbon Pecan Cherry Hand Pies

Prep Time: 30 min | Cook Time: 30 min | Total Time: 1 hr

Ingredients

- 3-4 cups fresh cherries, pitted
- 1/2 cup granulated sugar
- 2 teaspoons lemon juice
- 1 cup fresh blueberries
- 1-2 tablespoons bourbon
- 2 1/2 cups all-purpose flour, plus more for rolling
- 3/4 cup finely ground toasted pecans
- 1 cup (2 sticks) chilled salted butter, cut into pieces
- 1/3 cup ice water, plus more if needed
- 1 whole egg, beaten
- coarse sugar, for sprinkling

Instructions

1. In a medium saucepan, bring the cherries, sugar, lemon juice, and 2 tablespoons water to a boil over high heat. Once boiling use a potato masher or fork to break down and mash the cherries. Continue to cook for 8-10 minutes or until the jam has reduced and thickened by 1/3. Stir in the blueberries and cook another 5 minutes.
2. Remove from the heat and stir in the bourbon. Let cool completely before filling.
3. To make the crust. Add the flour pecans and butter to a food processor and pulse until the mixture is combined and resembles peas. Add the ice water and mix with a wooden spoon, drizzling in more water as needed (no more than 1 tablespoon at a time), until dough just comes together (a few dry spots are ok).
4. Divide the dough in half. Shape each piece into a circular disk. At this point you can cover the dough and place it in the fridge for up to one week OR continue on with the recipe...yes, no chilling needed!
5. Roll the dough out into a 1/8-inch thickness. Cut the dough into rectangles, about 6 1/2 x 4 1/2 inches. If desired, use a small star cookie cutter to cut stars out of half of the rectangles (see above photo).
6. Place a tablespoon of jam on one half of the rectangle. Lay the other half of the dough over the filling and seal the edges by crimping with the back of a fork. Repeat until you have used all the dough, you may have leftover jam. Place the pies on parchment lined baking sheets. Cover the baking sheets and place in the freezer for 20-30 minutes to chill.
7. Preheat the oven to 375 degrees F. Brush the pies with the beaten egg and sprinkle with the coarse sugar. Bake 15-20 minutes or until golden in color. Serve warm or at room temperature.

Toasted S'more Chocolate Ice Cream Cups

Prep Time: 30 min | Cook Time: 5 min | Total Time: 35 min

Ingredients

- 1 sleeve of graham crackers, crushed
- 6 tablespoons salted butter, softened
- 1 tablespoon honey
- 12 ounces semi-sweet chocolate, melted
- 6 cups chocolate ice cream
- 1/2 cup creamy peanut butter ((optional))
- 4 large egg whites
- 1 cup granulated or caster (powdered) sugar
- 1/2 teaspoon vanilla extract

Instructions

1. Preheat an oven to 325 degrees F. Line a baking sheet with parchment paper.
2. To make the graham cracker crumble. Combine the graham crackers, butter, and honey in a medium bowl. Transfer to the prepared baking sheet and bake until light golden brown, about 10 minutes.
3. Place 12 cupcake liners in a cupcake mold. Using the back of a spoon, smooth the melted chocolate up the sides of the liners. Sprinkle a little of the graham cracker crumble into the bottom of each cup (reserve the rest for serving). Place in the freezer for 10-15 minutes or until firm. Fill each cup with chocolate ice cream and a layer of peanut butter, if using. Freeze until firm, about 1-2 hours or overnight.
4. Just before serving, make the marshmallow. Bring a large pot of water to simmer. Whisk the egg whites and sugar together in the bowl of a stand mixer. Place the bowl of the stand mixer over the pot of simmering water and cook, stirring often, until the egg whites are very warm to the touch and the sugar has dissolved, remove the bowl from the heat. Whip the egg whites on high until stiff peaks form. Add the vanilla and whip to combine.
5. Top the frozen cups with marshmallow. Using a blow torch, toast the marshmallow. Serve immediately.

Honey Strawberry Muffins

Prep Time: 10 min | Cook Time: 20 min | Total Time: 30 min

Ingredients

- 1/2 cup salted butter, melted
- 1/2 cup runny honey
- 2 teaspoons vanilla extract
- 1 cup whole milk or buttermilk
- 1/2 cup plain greek yogurt
- 2 eggs
- 1 1/2 cups all-purpose flour
- 1 cup whole wheat flour
- 2 teaspoons baking powder
- 1/2 teaspoon baking soda

Instructions

1. Preheat the oven to 350 degrees F. Lightly coat 18 muffin tins with nonstick spray.
2. In a large mixing bowl, whisk together the melted butter, honey, vanilla, buttermilk, greek yogurt, and eggs until smooth. Add the flour, whole wheat flour, baking powder, and baking soda, and mix until just combined.
3. In a small bowl, stir together the strawberries, jam, and lemon zest. Gently fold the berries into the batter, being careful not to over mix, you are going for a swirled look.
4. Divide the batter evenly among the prepared muffins tins. Transfer to the oven and bake for 25-30 minutes or until a toothpick inserted into the center comes out clean.
5. Serve the muffins warm or at room temp with a smear of butter. Enjoy!

Zucchini, Bacon, and Pecorino Tart

Prep Time: 20 min | Cook Time: 1 hr | Total Time: 1 hr 20 min

Ingredients

- 1 sheet frozen puff pastry, thawed
- 3-4 medium zucchini, chopped
- 1 tablespoon extra virgin olive oil
- kosher salt
- 1/2 cup cubed bacon or pancetta
- 3 large eggs
- 1/2 cup heavy cream
- 1/2 cup grated pecorino cheese
- zucchini blossoms, for topping ((optional))

Instructions

1. Preheat the oven to 400 degrees. Grease a 9-inch tart pan with a little butter or oil, then dust it with flour until well coated.
2. Roll out the puff pastry into a large circle and drape it over the tart pan. Press the pastry into the nooks and crannies, then roll a rolling-pin over the top to cut away the excess pastry. Cover the pastry with a sheet of parchment paper and fill it with baking beans or weights. Set the pan in the oven and bake for 15 minutes, until dry to the touch. Remove from the oven, discard the parchment paper and baking beans, and bake for 3 to 5 minutes more to crisp up the base.
3. Meanwhile, roughly slice the zucchini into 1 inch thick rounds. Drizzle the olive oil into a large saucepan, set on medium heat, and add the zucchini and salt. Cook, stirring until the zucchini begin to color very lightly, 3 to 5 minutes. Toss in the pancetta and cook, stirring until the pancetta is crisp, 3 to 5 minutes more.
4. In a large bowl, whisk the eggs and cream with a fork, then whisk in the cheese. Season with a little salt. Allow the pancetta and zucchini mixture to cool a little (so that it doesn't cook the eggs), then add it to the eggs and cheese, and toss well.
5. Pour the filling into the prepared pastry shell. If using, open the zucchini blossoms very gently and pull out and discard the stamens. Then arrange the flowers on the top of the pie, gently pressing them into the filling. Bake the pie for 20 to 25 minutes, until golden on top. It's delicious eaten warm from the oven, or at room temperature.

Easy Chocolate Heart Doughnuts

Prep Time: 20 min | Cook Time: 30 min | Total Time: 50 min

Ingredients

- 1 1/4 cups warm milk
- 2 1/2 teaspoons instant yeast
- 1 tablespoon granulated sugar, plus more for rolling
- 4 tablespoons unsalted butter, melted
- 2 eggs
- 4 cups all purpose flour
- 1 teaspoon salt
- 1/2 cup Nutella
- 1/4 cup heavy cream
- 1 teaspoon vanilla extract

Instructions

1. In a large mixing bowl (I like to use my stand mixer), combine the warm milk, yeast, butter and egg, mix a little to combine and then add 4 cups flour and the salt. Knead the dough, using a dough hook or your hands, until the dough comes together and is smooth, about 3 minutes with a mixer, and 5-10 by hand. If the dough seems too sticky, add the remaining 1/4 cup flour. The dough should come together, but be slightly sticky to touch. Grease a large bowl and place the dough ball inside. Cover the bowl and let rise in a warm place until doubled in size, at least 30 minutes.
2. To fry the doughnuts, line 2 baking sheets with parchment. Lightly flour a work surface and roll out the dough to a 1/2-inch thickness. Using a heart-shaped cookie cutter, cut out the hearts. Arrange the doughnuts on the prepared baking sheet, leaving at least 1 inch between doughnuts. Cover the doughnuts loosely with plastic wrap while the oil heats.
3. In a heavy-bottomed large pot or deep fryer, heat at least 2 inches of oil until a deep-fry thermometer registers 350 degrees F. Working in batches, use a slotted metal spoon or spatula to carefully place the doughnuts in the hot oil. Fry, flipping once, until light golden brown, 1 to 2 minutes per side. When done, transfer to a wire rack to cool. Make sure to return the oil to 350 degrees F. between batches.
4. To make the glaze, mix together the Nutella, heavy cream, and vanilla until smooth and combined. Spoon the chocolate into a pastry bag fitted with a tip or just use a ziplock bag with the corner snipped off. Pierce the base of each cooled doughnut with the piping tube (or use a knife) and pipe a little filling into each doughnut. Generously sprinkle each doughnut with sugar. Enjoy!

Instructions

1. Preheat the oven to 350 degrees F. In a large bowl, mix the flour, oatmeal, cinnamon, and salt together. Add the butter and toss to coat. Add the egg yolks, yogurt, honey, and vanilla and mix until combined, adding 1 tablespoon of cold water at a time until the dough comes together and forms a ball.
2. Turn the dough out onto a floured surface. Roll out into a 1/8-inch thickness. Cut the dough into about 4" x 4 1/2" squares. Place a heaping tablespoon of jam down the center of each square, leaving about 1/4 inch border. Brush the borders with buttermilk. Fold one side up and over the filling and then pinch the dough together at either end. Do the same for the other side and use your fingers to seal the dough together at the seams. Carefully roll the bar over and place the seam side down on a baking sheet lined with parchment paper. Repeat with remaining dough.
3. Cover the bars and place the baking sheet in the freezer for 10-15 minutes. Once chilled, brush the tops of the bars lightly with buttermilk and transfer to the oven, bake on the middle rack for 15-20 minutes or until lightly golden brown on top, do not over bake.
4. Allow to cool 5-10 minutes, then carefully transfer the bars to a glass container with a lid, layering them between pieces of parchment paper. This will trap in heat and moisture, and slightly steam the bars, ensuring they remain soft. Store in an airtight container for up to 3 days or in the fridge for longer. These can also be wrapped in plastic wrap and frozen, thaw for 1 hour.

- 1 cup unsweetened cocoa powder
- 1 1/2 teaspoons baking soda
- 1 1/2 teaspoons baking powder
- 1 teaspoon salt
- 2 eggs (at room temperature*)
- 1 cup buttermilk
- 1/2 cup canola oil
- 1 tablespoon vanilla extract
- 1/2 cup hot brewed coffee (or water)
- 1/2 cup Nutella
- 3 eggs whites
- 3/4 cup granulated sugar
- 1 1/2 sticks (3/4 cup) unsalted butter (softened)
- 1 teaspoon vanilla extract
- 1-2 teaspoons beet juice or 1-2 drops red food coloring
- 2 cups semi-sweet chocolate chips
- 3 tablespoons coconut oil or canola oil

Instructions

1. Preheat the oven to 350 degrees F. Line 2 cupcake tins with paper liners.
2. In a medium bowl combine the flour, sugar, unsweetened cocoa powder, baking soda, baking powder and salt.
3. In the bowl of a stand mixer (or use a hand held mixer) beat together the eggs, buttermilk, canola oil and vanilla until smooth. Slowly add the dry ingredients to the wet ingredients with the mixer on low until there are no longer any clumps of flour. Add the coffee and mix until combined. Batter should be pourable, but not super thin.
4. Pour the batter among 18-20 cupcake liners. Transfer to the oven and bake for 12-15 minutes, until the tops are just set and no longer wiggly in the center. Remove and let cool completely before filling and frosting.
5. Use a small paring knife to cut a cone-shaped piece from the center of each cooled cupcake. Fill the hole with nutella, then replace the top portion of the cone (you'll need to slice off the tip).
6. To make the buttercream. Bring a large pot (big enough to place your mixing bowl over top) of water to boil. In the bowl of a stand mixer whisk the egg whites and sugar together. Place the bowl of the stand mixer over the pot of boiling water and cook, stirring often, until the egg whites are very warm to the touch and the sugar has dissolved, remove the bowl from the heat. Whip the egg whites on high until stiff peaks form. Allow the egg whites to cool before continuing. Once cool, add the butter, vanilla and beet juice/food coloring. Beat until combined and fluffy.
7. Transfer to a pastry bag fitted with a round tip. Pipe frosting into a swirl on each cupcake. Place the cupcakes in the fridge, covered for at least an hour to chill or up to overnight.
8. To make the chocolate coating. In a microwave safe bowl, microwave the chocolate chips and oil, stirring every 30 seconds until melted and smooth. Let the coating sit 10-15 minutes before dipping the cupcakes. Dip each cupcake in the chocolate, allowing any excess to drip off. Allow the chocolate to harden and then either serve or store covered in a cool and dark place for up to 3-4 days.

Buttery Parker House Rolls.

Prep Time: | Cook Time: 20 min | Total Time: 3 hr 10 min

Ingredients

- 3 cups King Arthur Unbleached All-Purpose Flour
- 2 1/2 teaspoons instant yeast
- 3 tablespoons sugar
- 1 1/4 teaspoons salt
- 1/4 cup potato flour
- 3 tablespoons butter
- 1 cup milk
- 1 large egg
- 3 1/2 tablespoons to 4 butter, melted; for brushing on rolls

Instructions

1. In a large mixing bowl, or in the bowl of an electric mixer, combine all of the ingredients (except the 3 tablespoons melted butter at the end), mixing to form a shaggy dough. Note: to speed the rising process, whisk together the milk and egg, and heat gently just enough to remove the refrigerator chill; then add to the remaining ingredients.
2. Knead the dough, by hand (10 minutes) or by machine (7 to 8 minutes) until it's smooth.
3. Place the dough in a lightly greased bowl or 8-cup measure (so you can track its rising progress). Allow it to rise for 90 minutes; it'll become quite puffy, though it probably won't double in bulk. Note that the dough takes quite awhile to get going; after 1 hour, it may seem like it's barely expanded at all. But during the last half hour, it rises more quickly.
4. Transfer the dough to a lightly greased work surface. Divide it in half. Working with one half at a time, roll or pat the dough into an 8" x 12" rectangle.
5. Brush the dough all over with a light coating of the melted butter. You'll have melted butter left over; save it to brush on top of the baked rolls.
6. Cut the dough in half lengthwise, to make two 4" x 12" rectangles. Working with one rectangle at a time, fold it lengthwise to about 1/2" of the other edge, so the bottom edge sticks out about 1/2" beyond the top edge. You'll now have a rectangle that's about 2 1/4" x 12". Repeat with the other piece of dough.
7. Cut each of the rectangles crosswise into four 3" pieces, making a total of 8 rolls, each about 2 1/4" x 3". Place the rolls, smooth side up, in a lightly greased 9" x 13" pan. Repeat with the remaining piece of dough, making 16 rolls in all. Alternately you can roll each rectangle of dough into a coil as you would a cinnamon roll.
8. You'll arrange 4 rows of 4 in the pan, with the longer side of the rolls going down the longer side of the pan. Gently flatten the rolls to pretty much cover the bottom of the pan.
9. Cover the pan, and let the rolls rise for about 45 minutes to 1 hour, until they're puffy but definitely not doubled. Towards the end of the rising time, preheat the oven to 350°F.
10. Bake the rolls for 20 to 25 minutes, until they're golden brown and feel set.
11. Remove them from the oven, and brush with the remaining melted butter. Pull them apart to serve.
